The second is to utilize today's technology to the fullest extent and direct media members to the Bills Interactive Online Media Guide at www.buffalobills.com/media. Realizing that information in the guide needs to be constantly updated, our interactive media guide allows us to have the latest information at our fingertips in terms of player bios, team and individual records and statistical figures, just to mention a few.
- We have also added more in-depth information to areas such as the Records and History Sections, bios and other often-used information. The website is also a great resource for newspaper clips and historical data as well. We strongly encourage all media members to utilize the site. We also encourage all media members to notify us of elements you would like to see on the site as we are striving to make our site your first, and best, resource when covering the Bills.

19th YEAR WITH THE BILLS

The Bills organization embarked upon a new direction on December 31, 2009 by naming Buddy Nix General Manager and making him responsible for all football operations.

The Bills new GM worked diligently towards his first major decision and 20 days later announced Chan Gailey as the team's new head coach. Though the two men have never worked previously together, their styles and approach to the game are very similar. Both believe success is accomplished by hard work, being prepared and toughness. "It's more about fundamentals than being flashy and I think our team will reflect that philosophy."

Nix's approach to building the Bills back into prominence centers around the Draft and with the first selection with Nix as GM, the team chose RB C.J. Spiller from Clemson, the player that some Draft evaluators and media felt was the best overall player. The team then drafted DT Torell Troup to play a role in the defense's switch to the 3-4 scheme and Alex Carrington to compete at the DE position. The Draft evaluators also gave the Bills high marks for selecting a player they felt may be one of the "steals" of this year's Draft, WR Marcus Easley. The Bills also selected OL Ed Wang, the first Chinese American in the NFL, and QB Levi Brown out of Troy.

Nix's ability as a keen evaluator of talent also led to the Bills adding players in free agency who fit the team in key positions. LBs Andra Davis and Reggie Torbor and DE Dwan Edwards were brought in for the 3-4 scheme while veteran Cornell Green will handle the RT responsibilities.

Nix had rejoined the franchise earlier in the year as the National Scout. Prior to returning to Buffalo, he had served seven seasons with the San Diego Chargers, first as Director of Player Personnel from 2001 – 2002, where he oversaw both pro and college scouting, and then as Assistant General Manager-Director of Player Personnel from 2003 – 2007.

San Diego finished 1-15 in the year prior to Nix's arrival and then made the playoffs four times between 2001 and 2008 while capturing the AFC West title four times between 2004 and 2008. The Chargers advanced to the AFC Championship game in 2007.

Nix's first tenure with the Bills was as a Southeast region college scout from 1993 – 2000, where he first worked with former Bills GM John Butler before joining San Diego.

From 1984 – 1992, Nix was the head coach at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. Prior to his nine seasons at UTC, Nix's collegiate career included assistant positions at Louisiana State University (1981 – 1983), Auburn (1976 – 1980), Southern Mississippi (1972 – 1975), Livingston University (1970 – 1971) and Carson Newman (1969). In 1971, Livingston won the Division II National Championship while Nix was the Defensive Coordinator.

Nix's coaching career began in 1961 as a graduate assistant at the University of Alabama, the same year the Crimson Tide finished 11-0 and defeated Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl en route to a National Championship. He later coached positions at Anniston (1962 – 1964) and Eufaula (1964 – 1967) High Schools in Alabama and Jonesboro High School (1967 – 1969) in Georgia.

Nix was born in Carbon Hill, AL and attended Talladega High School and played linebacker and fullback at Livingston University (the University's name has since been changed to West Alabama University). He was inducted into Livingston's Hall of Fame in 1983.

NIX'S NOTES AS CHARGERS ASST. GM/DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

- Drafts from 2002-08 yielded 16 players who started at least one game for the Chargers in 2008.
- Drafts during his tenure produced eight Pro Bowlers: CB Antonio Cromartie (2008), C Nick Hardwick (2007), C Vincent Jackson (2010), K Nate Kaeding (2007, 2010), LB Shawne Merriman (2006-08), T Marcus McNeil (2007-08), S Hank Milligan (2006) and QB Philip Rivers (2007-08, 2010).
- Three of his unsigned rookie free agents – TE Antonio Gates (2005-10), G Kris Dielman (2008-10) and WR/ST Kassim Osgood (2007-08, 2010) also earned the honor to represent the AFC in the Pro Bowl.
- San Diego finished the 2008 season with 38 players on its roster drafted or signed as undrafted free agents during Nix's tenure with the team.
- During the 2004 draft, San Diego traded QB Eli Manning to the New York Giants in exchange for QB Philip Rivers and third-round draft choice and a first-round draft choice in '04 (K Nate Kaeding, LB Shawne Merriman) and a fifth-round choice in 2005. Three of the players acquired in the trade went the Pro Bowl while with San Diego.

PERSONNEL EXPERIENCE

Was named to his current title in January of 2008, having joined the Bills organization on June 5, 2001 when he was named Director of Football Operations. He served as Assistant General Manager from 2002-2006 and his title was changed to Director of College Scouting for the 2007 season.

Prior to coming to Buffalo, served as the Director of Football Operations for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1998 through May of 2001. He began his career in the league in 1973 as a part-time scout for the Pittsburgh Steelers and then worked with the BLESTO scouting service before joining the Steelers on a full-time basis in 1978. From 1979-86, he served as the Steelers' pro scout before being elevated to the position of director of pro scouting for two seasons. He ran the Steelers' college personnel evaluation department for nine seasons before taking the job with the Eagles in the spring of 1998.

During Modrak's nine years as college scouting director, the Steelers' draft produced no fewer than eight Pro Bowl players. In his 20 years there, the Steelers reached the playoffs 11 times and played in Super Bowl XXX against Dallas. He was also with the Steelers when they defeated the Rams in Super Bowl XIV.

PERSONAL

A graduate of Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP), Modrak received his bachelor's degree in geography in 1965. In 1972, he earned a master's degree in physical education from the University of West Virginia. He is a member of the Indiana University Hall of Fame and was inducted into the Western Pennsylvania Hall of Fame in 2006. Tom and his wife, Sandy, have two daughters, Stephanie and Erin.

PERSONNEL EXPERIENCE

Doug Whaley was named Assistant General Manager/Director of Pro Personnel of the Buffalo Bills on February 10, 2010. Whaley oversees the team's Pro Personnel department and assists General Manager Buddy Nix in all football-related administrative duties and in the college talent evaluation process.

Whaley joined the Bills after spending the previous 11 years with the Pittsburgh Steelers. From 1999 – 2009, Whaley served as Pittsburgh's Pro Scouting Coordinator where he was responsible for advance scouting of the team's opponents and focused on breaking down opposing players for the team's upcoming games, evaluating unrestricted and restricted free agents throughout the season and into the free agent offseason period, and making campus visits and scouting college players throughout the year.

Prior to re-joining the Steelers in 1999, Whaley served as an East coast area scout for the Seattle Seahawks from 1996 – 1998. Whaley began his career as an assistant in the Steelers' Pro Personnel department in 1995.

In Whaley's 12 years with the Steelers, Pittsburgh advanced to the playoffs seven times and captured two Super Bowl (XL and XLIII) titles in three championship game appearances.

PERSONAL

A native of Pittsburgh, PA, Whaley was a four-year letterwinner as a safety and linebacker for the University of Pittsburgh from 1990 – 1993 where he graduated with a degree in Business Finance. Upon graduation, Whaley worked for one year as a retail stockbroker on Wall Street in 1994. Whaley was a three-sport letterman in football, wrestling and track as a student at Upper St. Clair (Pittsburgh, PA) High School.

The Bills entered a new era on January 19th of this year when Chan Gailey was named the 15th Head Coach in franchise history. Now in his 16th season in the NFL coaching ranks, Gailey is recognized league-wide for his successful offenses, though he has coached all three phases of the game during his vast coaching career.

Gailey has over three decades of coaching experience, including head coaching experience in college, World League and the NFL. Gailey served as head coach of the Dallas Cowboys from 1998-99, leading the Cowboys to playoff berths in each season and compiling an 18-14 regular season record. Gailey also has four stints as offensive coordinator in the NFL with Denver (1989-90), Pittsburgh (1996-97), Miami (2000-01) and Kansas City (2008).

With the Cowboys in 1998, Gailey became the first coach in NFC Eastern Division history to lead his team to a perfect 8-0 record in division play and a 10-6 overall record. Also in 1998, his Dallas squad ranked in the NFL's top 10 in total offense (eighth – 340.6 ypg), rushing (eighth – 125.9 ypg), scoring (ninth– 23.8 ppg) and passing (ninth – 214.8 ypg). He followed that with an 8-8 campaign in 1999 and his second consecutive playoff appearance.

In his two seasons as the Cowboys head coach, Dallas scored 37 rushing touchdowns, the fourth-highest total in the NFL over the two year timeframe.

Gailey's resume speaks for itself. He has spent nine of his previous 15 NFL seasons as either a head coach or offensive coordinator. During those nine seasons, his teams have made the playoffs seven times and boasted a 1,000-yard rusher on seven different occasions. In total, he has made playoff appearances in 11 of his 15 seasons in NFL coaching. His resume also boasts four Super Bowl berths, including one with Pittsburgh (XXX) and three with Denver (XXI, XXII and XXIV).

Gailey served as the head coach at Georgia Tech from 2002-07, becoming the first coach in school history to lead the Yellow Jackets to bowl appearances in his first six seasons. He compiled a 44-33 overall record and his squad averaged 199.3 rushing ypg, which led the Atlantic Coast

Conference in 2007 and finished third in the conference in total offense with 384.9 ypg that season.

In 2006, the Yellow Jackets featured the 2006 Biletnikoff Award winner and number two overall draft pick in the 2007 NFL Draft in WR Calvin Johnson (Detroit). The ACC Player of the Year caught 78 passes for a single-season record 1,202 yards with 15 touchdown receptions, tying for second-most in the country.

A total of 46 Yellow Jackets coached by Gailey in his six seasons at Georgia Tech were either selected in the NFL's annual Draft Selection or were signed to a free-agent contract with an NFL team.

In 2008, Gailey returned to the NFL as the offensive coordinator with the Kansas City Chiefs. The Chiefs had a duo of 1,000-yard receivers - TE Tony Gonzalez and WR Dwayne Bowe - marking the third time in team history.

His coaching experience is so wide-ranging that it includes stints coaching defense and special teams, in addition to his success on the offensive side of the ball. In fact, he owns the distinction of serving as both a head coach and defensive coordinator on the collegiate level, as well as stints as a head coach and offensive coordinator in the NFL ranks.

Gailey began his NFL career as an assistant with the Denver Broncos from 1985-90 under head coach Dan Reeves. He served as offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach (1989-90), quarterbacks/wide receivers coach (1988), tight ends/special teams coach (1986-87) and defensive assistant/special teams coach (1985). During his six years in Denver, the Broncos developed into one of the league's most potent passing attacks centering around Hall of Fame signal-caller John Elway. With Gailey as the team's offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach in 1989, the Broncos advanced to Super Bowl XXIV.

In 1991, Gailey left the NFL to become the head coach of the Birmingham Fire of the World League of American Football, where his team made the playoffs in both years with him at the helm.

After a one-year stint as the head coach at Samford University, Gailey returned to the NFL as wide receivers coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1994-95, before being promoted to offensive coordinator (1996-97). During that four-year run alongside head coach Bill Cowher, the Steelers won four straight AFC Central crowns, appeared in three AFC Championship Games and earned a berth in Super Bowl XXX following the 1995 campaign.

During his tenure in Pittsburgh, he was credited with implementing the "Slash" offense that featured the skills of multi-talented QB Kordell Stewart. In 1996, Gailey's first season as offensive coordinator, Pittsburgh ranked second in the NFL in rushing, averaging 143.7 ypg. The following season the Steelers led the league in rushing with 154.9 ypg on the ground. During the 1997 season, Pittsburgh ranked sixth in the NFL in total offense (346.4 ypg) and was seventh in scoring (23.3 ppg).

Buffalo's secondary continues to produce productive seasons under Catavolos' leadership. In 2009, rookie FS Jairus Byrd recorded a club-rookie record nine interceptions and earned a Pro Bowl berth. The Bills ranked first in the AFC in 2009 with 28 interceptions, including 22 from the defensive backs.

Below are statistical feats accomplished by the Bills under Catavolos:

McKelvin added two interceptions – including one returned for a touchdown as a rookie.

▶ In 2007, Catavolos led the secondary to a solid season as a number of players gained on-the-job experience while the team overcame numerous injuries (four defensive backs were placed on injured reserve). CB Terrence McGee led the team with four interceptions and ranked third in the NFL with 25 passes defended. Catavolos led the transition of former WR George Wilson to safety and Wilson started nine games at the position. CB Jabari Greer started a career-high 13 games. Safety Donte Whitner ranked third on the team in tackles with 102.

▶ In 2006, the Bills defensive backs enjoyed a standout season in their first year working with the long-time coaching veteran. The Bills ranked 1st in the NFL yielding just 10.14 yards per completion and ranked No. 3 allowing 6.40 yards per pass attempt. Buffalo ranked 6th in the NFL in passing net yards per play and 7th in passing net yards per game. Catavolos was influential in the development of the NFL's only starting rookie safety tandem in 2006 – Donte Whitner and Ko Simpson. Whitner was awarded the NFL's defensive rookie of the month award in September and selected to the NFL All-Rookie team.

HISTORY

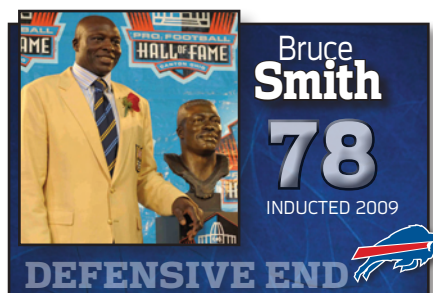

The impact Ralph Wilson, Jr. has had on professional football culminated in 2009 with his induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

For starters, he is the only original AFL owner to keep his team in its originating city. The role he played in the AFL-NFL merger, his presence on nearly every NFL committee and his passion for the game as one who has always had the league's best interests at heart before his own team has led many to refer to him as the NFL's "voice of reason."

Under his direction as owner, the Bills won two AFL Championships in 1964 and 1965 and were the only AFL team to make the postseason in four consecutive years (1963-66). Later, his Bills would become the only team ever to win four consecutive AFC championships (1990-93) and appear in four consecutive Super Bowls.

He has been honored with numerous awards, including the Pete Rozelle Award from the Touchdown Club in New Orleans, the NFL Alumni's "Order of the Leather Helmet" and the "Timmie" Award from the Touchdown Club of Washington D.C. In 2008, Mr. Wilson received the Maxwell Football Club's Francis J. (Reds) Bagnell Award for Contributions to the Game of Football and the inaugural Lamar Hunt Award for Professional Football at the 101 Awards in Kansas City. At the turn of the century The Buffalo News named Ralph Wilson, Jr. as the "Top Sports Figure" of the region in the past millennium.

Widely regarded as one of the most dominant defensive players ever to play in the National Football League, Bruce Smith began his tenure with the Buffalo Bills in 1985. Over the next 19 seasons, Smith would amass more sacks (200) than any other player in NFL history. In Buffalo, Smith anchored the defense for 15 years, which ranks first (along with WR Andre Reed) for the most seasons played in a Bills uniform. In 10 of those years, Buffalo reached the postseason.

Taken with the first overall pick in the 1985 NFL Draft, Smith started 13 games his rookie year and collected 48 tackles and 6.5 sacks. Those numbers jumped to 63 and 15.0, respectively, in 1986. Perhaps his finest year came in 1990, when he posted 101 tackles, 19.0 sacks and 14 QB pressures while the team won its first of four consecutive AFC Championships.

Smith was named to the Pro Bowl 11 times in his career and was the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1990 and 1996. Known for his ability to get to the opposing quarterback, Smith racked up sacks against 74 different quarterbacks and against every team but three: San Diego, Buffalo, and Baltimore. He ranks first in NFL history with 13 seasons of 10 or more sacks and second on the all-time postseason sack list with 14.5.

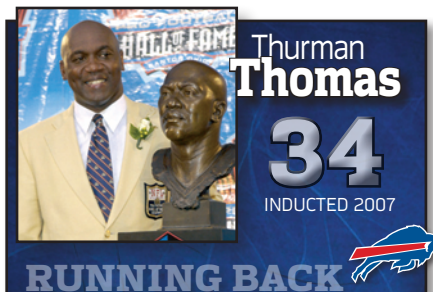

He was named to the NFL's All-Decade team in both the 1980's and 1990's. Smith was the AFC Defensive Player of the Week eight times during his Bills tenure, and Defensive Player of the Month six times. Extremely durable, Smith ranks 13th on the all-time games played list with 279.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- NFL's all-time sack leader with 200.
- Selected to 11 Pro Bowls.

Thurman Thomas developed into one of the NFL's most versatile and dangerous offensive players in his 13 years in the league. He was also known as one of the team's most emotional leaders for the Buffalo Bills – a team that won more games (103) than any AFC team in the 1990s.

His ability to catch the ball as well as run with it was a key ingredient to the Bills' "No Huddle" offensive attack.

The team improved to 13-3 in 1990 as Thomas led the NFL in all-purpose yards. He rushed for 1,297 yards and scored 11 touchdowns while catching 49 passes for 532 yards and two touchdowns. With the versatile back leading the way, the Bills marched through the playoffs to the first of their unprecedented four straight Super Bowl berths.

In 1991, Thomas amassed more than 2,000 all-purpose yards, just the 11th player ever to do so. His league-leading yardage output included 1,407 yards on the ground and an additional 631 yards on a career-high 62 receptions. He scored 12 touchdowns. He reached the 2,000-yard total again the following season which marked a record fourth straight season of leading the NFL in yards from scrimmage.

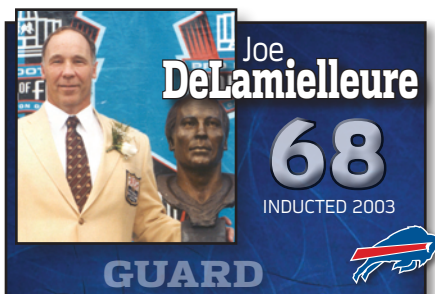

Named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s, Thomas was selected first- or second-team All-Pro and All-AFC five times, and was voted to the Pro Bowl five straight years. Thomas retired as the NFL's ninth ranked rusher with 12,074 yards and added another 4,458 yards on 472 catches. He scored 65 rushing and 23 receiving touchdowns in his 13-season career.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- First NFL player to lead the NFL in yards from scrimmage in four consecutive seasons (1989-92)
- Third back in history to record 400 receptions and 10,000 rushing yards
- Five-time Pro Bowl selection and 1991 NFL Most Valuable Player

In the 1970s, Joe DeLamielleure and his Buffalo Bills offensive line mates were dubbed the "Electric Company," because they "turned the Juice loose." The "Juice" of course was Hall of Fame running back O.J. Simpson. An All-America and three-time All-Big Ten performer at Michigan State, "Joe D" was selected in the first round of the 1973 NFL Draft by the Bills.

Extremely durable and dependable, Joe played in 185 consecutive games during his 13 playing seasons with the Bills and the Cleveland Browns. A starter from the first game of his rookie season, DeLamielleure started in every game for eight seasons in Buffalo before being traded to Cleveland in 1980.

He went on to become the most honored lineman of the Bills respected front wall. Eight times during his career he was selected first- or second-team All-Pro; seven times he was named first- or second-team All-AFC, and six times he was named to the Pro Bowl. Since 1970, only two Hall of Fame guards, John Hannah with 10 and Gene Upshaw with seven, were named All-Pro more often.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Selected to six straight Pro Bowls from 1976-1981
- First or second-team All-Pro from 1974-1980, 1983
- Named to the 1970s All-Decade Team

WIDE RECEIVER

James Lofton's speed and soft hands made him an immediate deep-threat receiver from the moment he entered the pros in 1978.

It was something he would remain throughout his long career with Green Bay, the Los Angeles Raiders, Buffalo Bills, Los Angeles Rams, and the Philadelphia Eagles. In 16 seasons, Lofton caught 764 passes for 14,004 yards – an average of 18.3 yards per catch. His 14,004 career-reception yardage mark was an NFL best at the time of his retirement, while his 43 games with 100 or more yards receiving ranked third.

In 1987, Lofton was traded to the Raiders, and two years later joined the Bills. In Buffalo, he reemerged as one of the game's premier deep-threats. In 1991, at age 35, the still-speedy receiver became the oldest player in league history to record 1,000 receiving yards in a season.

Extremely durable, Lofton was the first NFL player to score a touchdown in the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s. Many of his 75 touchdown receptions came on long passes when he simply outran the opposition.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- When he retired in 1993, his total of 14,004 yards was No. 1 all-time
- Selected to eight Pro Bowls (1979, 1981-86, 1992), named All-Pro four times and All-NFC three times
- Only player to score a touchdown in the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s

INDUCTED 2002

QUARTERBACK

A strong-armed passer with a "linebacker's mentality," Kelly virtually rewrote the Bills' record book for quarterbacks. Only three players in NFL history had reached the 30,000-yard career passing mark faster. Eight times during his NFL career he passed for more than 3,000 yards in a season, and twenty-six times he passed for more than 300 yards in a game.

With Kelly and teammates Thurman Thomas and Andre Reed, the Bills possessed a highly potent offense during the 1990s. Kelly's quick decisiveness and fast paced "no-huddle" offense terrorized opposing defenses.

In 11 seasons in Buffalo, Kelly led the Bills to the playoffs eight times. In 17 playoff game appearances, including four consecutive Super Bowls, he passed for 3,863 yards and 21 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement, his 84.4 passer rating ranked sixth all-time and was second when compared to Hall of Fame quarterbacks. His 35,467 career passing yards ranked tenth in NFL history; his 2,874 completions ranked eighth; and his 237 touchdowns ranked thirteenth.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Selected to four Pro Bowls: 1987, 1990-1992
- Led the Bills to an unprecedented four straight Super Bowls from 1990-1993

Equally adept at pass blocking and run blocking, Billy Shaw's ability to pull out in front of runners was a perfect fit for the Bills. Shaw's speed, strength, and natural ability made him "the driving force of the offensive unit" according to his former offensive line coach Jerry Smith.

Especially effective on short-yardage scoring plays, Shaw would pull out from his left guard position followed by heavy-duty runners Cookie Gilchrist and Wray Carlton. Bills quarterback Jack Kemp or his super-sub Daryle Lamonica would follow the powerful trio of blockers – often untouched – into the end zone.

A key member of the Bills teams that won AFL titles in 1964 and 1965, Shaw was named a first-team All-AFL selection five times (1962 through 1966) and also a second team All-AFL choice in 1962, 1968 and 1969.

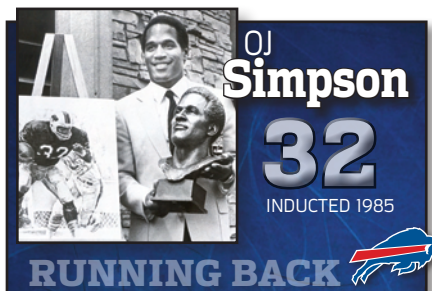

He was selected to play in eight AFL All-Star Games and was named to the All-Time AFL Team. Named to pro football's All-Decade Team of the 1960s, Shaw is the first Hall of Fame member to play his entire career in the AFL.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Helped lead the Bills to back-to-back AFL titles in 1964 and 1965

O. J. Simpson, a two-time All-American from the University of Southern California and the 1968 Heisman Trophy winner, was one of history's most heralded rookies when the Buffalo Bills selected him with the first overall pick in the 1969 draft.

His career record for 11 seasons confirms the rave notices were well founded. He rushed for 11,236 yards and scored 456 points on 76 touchdowns in his career.

O.J. may be best remembered for his sensational 1973 season when he became the first back in history to rush for over 2,000 yards. With 219 yards in the next-to-last game against New England and a 200-yard output in the finale with the New York Jets, Simpson totaled 2,003 yards, tops for a 14-game season.

Simpson also led the league in rushing four years: 1972, 1973, 1975 and 1976.

In various selections, he was named NFL Player of the Year in 1972, 1973 and 1975. He was both All-AFC and All-Pro five straight years from 1972 through 1976. He played in six Pro Bowls, winning Player of the Game honors in the 1973 game.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

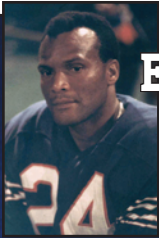

- Won four NFL rushing titles (1972, 1973, 1975 and 1976)
- Became the first back to ever rush for more than 2,000 yards in 1973 with 2003 yards.
- Named NFL Player of the Year in 1972, 1973 and 1975, and also named to both All-Pro and All-AFC squads from 1972-76.

The Buffalo Bills Wall of Fame was created in 1980 to honor former players, administrators, and coaches who have played significant roles in the team's history. To be eligible for induction, an individual must have played with the Bills for at least three years and be retired from professional football. Also eligible are other individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the Bills, including administrators and coaches. Selections are made by a distinguished panel composed of club personnel and media members.

In 2010, the Bills will honor Booker Edgerson. Edgerson will become the 26th member of the elite group in an event that will take place when the Bills host the New York Jets on October 3, 2010.

>>> BILLS TORONTO SERIES <<<

In 2008, the Buffalo Bills became the first NFL team to host a regular season game on Canadian soil when they faced AFC East rival the Miami Dolphins on December 7. The Bills Toronto Series continued last year with its third installment when the Bills played the New York Jets on December 3, 2009 at Rogers Centre in Toronto.

The Bills Toronto Series continues in 2010 with a preseason game on August 19 against the Indianapolis Colts and a regular season game against the Chicago Bears on November 7.

The series is an effort to further regionalize the Bills franchise and will bring a total of eight games over a five-year period to Toronto. The series began with a preseason game against the Pittsburgh Steelers on Thursday, August 14, 2008.

The series includes a regular season game each year (2008-2012) and preseason games in 2008, 2010 and 2012.

"We are very pleased to be the first franchise in NFL history to split our schedule between our domestic home city of Buffalo, New York and our neighboring international city, Toronto, Ontario," Bills owner Ralph Wilson commented in 2008. "The population growth in Toronto, the passion the Canadian fans have shown for the Buffalo Bills and the vision of Ted Rogers and Larry Tanenbaum have made this possible."

Phil Lind, Vice Chairman of Rogers Communications Inc. added, "This is like a dream come true. Playing a season's worth of games in the Rogers Centre will make for incredibly exciting football. Canadians love NFL football and this series will let Canadians see the games live in Toronto."

The Bills have set the standard around the league for the regionalization of their franchise, dating back to the relocation of training camp to Rochester, New York and continuing through this series.

HOW THE BILLS GOT THEIR NAME

Following the 1946 season, in an effort to generate more fan interest and distinguish the football team from the city's minor league baseball and hockey teams, which also bore the name "Bisons," the team ran a contest to select a new name. Over 4,500 entries were submitted, and "the Bills" won out over "Bullets," "Nickels" and "Blue Devils." Several contestants suggested the winning name, but James F. Dyson was named the winner of the $500 prize based on his essay comparing the team to a band of "Buffalo Bills." He wrote that, while the legendary Indian Scout William "Buffalo Bill" Cody helped trailblaze the American Frontier, the football team (owned by the president of Frontier Oil) was opening a new frontier in Buffalo sports.

From professional sports (MLB, NFL, CFL) to concerts, family shows and trade shows, Rogers Centre is in constant demand.

One of the unique features of Rogers Centre is that it can be transformed to meet the needs of any event by converting between baseball and football mode. The 100 level seats sit on a railway track system that allows them to rotate from a baseball field to football field within hours.

In addition, Rogers Centre's fully retractable roof means we are an indoor facility with the ability to become open-air pending weather conditions. The roof system features a series of three moveable panels and one stationary panel which takes 20 minutes to open or close fully. The roof weighs 11,000 tons and covers an area of 339,343 square feet. The highest point stands 282 feet above field level.

Evans annually attends the MS Dinner of Champions and encourages all in attendance to continue to support the cause. This is especially important in WNY because there is a statistically high rate of multiple sclerosis. Evans has also invited guests from the MS Society to sit in his personal suite at Buffalo Bills home games.

In addition to his work with the Play 60 Challenge and the "Team Up 4 MS" program, Lee has volunteered at a number of different community events and programs including the Buffalo Bills and American Red Cross Blood Drive at Ralph Wilson Stadium, The Billie - Breast Cancer Awareness Campaign, the local Make-A-Wish Foundation and the NFL Grassroots Grant announcement at Riverside Park in Buffalo.

COMMUNITY

In 2009, ABC's hit show Extreme Makeover: Home Edition came to Buffalo's West Side. Spencer, along with other Bills players participated on move in day. Spencer and his fellow teammates carried in couches, mattresses, tables and chairs to make the family feel at home again. Once the move was complete, Spencer hung around on the construction site to sign autographs and pose for pictures with the other volunteers and ABC's crew!

Spencer was also a part of the 2009 Kid's Escaping Drugs Campaign, Face your Fears. The funds that were raised benefited the Kid's Escaping Drugs Face to Face Program which is an educational outreach program that goes into the schools to help kids at an age where they are faced with difficult choices.

Spencer also hosted events of his own in 2009. During the summer, he held the Spencer Johnson Football Camp and in October he hosted a spin-off of the hit show "The Amazing Race" at a local college in Buffalo.

Rookie Club events included a visit to Dave & Buster's to play video games and host a pizza party with pediatric cancer patients hosted by Brian Moorman's PUNT Foundation, a visit to the Lawrence Park Collegiate Institute Panthers in Toronto, Ontario to discuss the importance of sport and activity with the student-athletes and to present the football team with $3,000 in new equipment for the school's football program, and a trip to the Northwest Buffalo

Community Center in November 2009 where the Rookie Club Members served Thanksgiving Dinner to approximately 300 children and families. BILLS ALL ACCESS presented by Tim Horton's

The long running and popular Bills ALL ACCESS Show is hosted by Steve Tasker, Bills Wall of Famer and CBS NFL analyst. Tasker, elected by fans in 2009 as a member of the Bills 50th Anniversary All-Time Team, goes behind the scenes to review and preview the action at One Bills Drive.

PRESENTED BY
Tim Hortons

Each week Tasker will be joined by Chris Brown, buffalo-bills.com lead journalist, as two of Buffalo's most respected football minds provide their inside scoop and break down the Bills upcoming matchup.

In 2010, Tasker and Brown will take questions from the fans to provide more insight on a specific play or to analyze a player who stepped up his game. The popular Open Mic segment where fans can hear the quotes and quips of their favorite players and coaches will continue. Also, an exciting and entertaining segment showcasing some of the best Bills fans around will be added.

Bills ALL ACCESS presented by Tim Horton's returns to the airwaves this September across the Bills Television Network. Check local listings for dates and times in your area or visit buffalobills.com. Participating stations in the Bills Television Network include WKBW-Buffalo, WHAM-Rochester, WTVH-Syracuse, WBNG-Binghamton and CityTV-Toronto.

COMMUNITY

Brian Moorman is one of the most admired and respected players in the NFL for his dedication to the community. He makes himself available to support the many organizations and agencies involved with the team but on his own he goes above and beyond to help children – especially children facing cancer. In 2003, he established the Brian Moorman PUNT Foundation to support pediatric cancer research, treatment and social programs. A majority of his work is affiliated with Roswell Park Cancer Institute and Carly's Club, the hospital's family-centered support group for its patients. Throughout each year, the PUNT Foundation hosts many events to raise awareness to their cause. In 2009, PUNT hosted its annual Black Tie Gala, a Pottery Painting event and in 2010 hosted the first annual Sprint Triathlon in Buffalo.

Brian participated in the 2009 Community Ticket Donation Program by donating 20 season tickets to Carly's Club. Over 200 people were part of Moorman's Miracles and attended Buffalo Bills home games where they were also treated to food and beverage coupons compliments of Brian.

In addition, Brian was also a part of the Extreme

Makeover: Home Edition move in day when the show took over Buffalo's West Side in November. Brian and his fellow teammates carried in couches, mattresses, tables and chairs to make the family feel at home again. Once the move was complete, Brian hung around on the construction site to sign autographs and pose for pictures with the other volunteers and ABC's crew!

Also, in 2009, Brian was selected to be a part of All-Fundamentals Team which is a 26-man roster that honor's the NFL's most fundamentally-sound players who commit themselves to service their communities.

BUFFALO BILLS YOUTH FOOTBALL STADIUM

In 2004, the Buffalo Bills became pioneers in NFL Youth Football circles by becoming the first NFL franchise to open a facility dedicated for youth football on the same grounds as the team headquarters.

In 2005, the Buffalo Bills Youth Football Stadium began to expand. The stadium located behind Ralph Wilson Stadium added new bleachers to accommodate 500 fans, a press box with a full sound system, a full-size wireless scoreboard above the South end zone, a camera deck, and a concession stand for the teams to use (all proceeds from the concessions stand go back to the youth football organizations). The Bills received a matching grant from the NFL Youth Football Fund to assist in paying for the renovations.

In 2009 more than 40 youth football games were played at the Buffalo Bills Youth Football Stadium. The stadium was used by more than 5,000 Youth Football players, coaches, cheerleaders, and fans throughout the season.

The manicured, regulation-size grass football field is located behind Ralph Wilson Stadium in a space formally occupied by the Bills' outdoor practice field. The field is used by teams in the Western New York Amateur Football Alliance, which consists of approximately 300 youth football teams throughout Western New York, and by the Western New York Pop Warner Organization which consists of teams throughout Buffalo and Rochester.

In addition to youth tackle football games, the facility will be used for multiple youth football related events such as the NFL High School Player Development program and NFL Flag program. If you would like more information about the Buffalo Bills Youth Football stadium please email us at BUF-Community@bills.nfl.net or contact us by phone at 716-648-1800.

BUFFALO BILLS HIGH SCHOOL PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Over 200 high school football players from Western New York focused on character development and specific football skill training through the Buffalo Bills & National Football League's High School Player Development (H.S.P.D.) program presented by the National Guard from June 8th – June 11th in the Buffalo Bills Fieldhouse. The H.S.P.D. coaching staff was lead by Riverside High School Head Football Coach Tony Truilizio, and included coaches from Riverside, Williamsville South, South Park, Hutch Tech, Lockport and Iroquois high schools.

Buffalo Bills Assistant to the Head Coach Daryl Daye addressed the high school players on the opening night of the camp. Daye owns 24 years of collegiate coaching experience and spent the previous four years (2006-09) at Missouri Southern State as the school's defensive coordinator, special teams and linebackers coach. Coach Daye discussed the importance of academics, athleticism and character with the group, in regards to what college coaches are looking for when they are recruiting players.

Buffalo Bills Players CJ Spiller, Kyle Calloway, Drayton Florence, Michael Mathews, Arthur Moats, Derek Schouman, Antonio Coleman, Dominique Harris, Ryan Manalac, Levi Brown, Brett Johnson, Sean Allen, Keith Ellison and Garrison Sanborn attended the second night of camp and worked with the players during individual drills. The players addressed the group at the end of the night and encouraged them to strive to be their best both on the field and in the classroom.

Since its inception in 2001, the NFL's national HSPD program has provided participants with a curriculum that focuses on inspiring excellence in the classroom, community, and on the playing field. The program, which is partially funded by the NFL Youth Football Fund, is free for students and will reach more than 20,000 high school student-athletes at more than 125 sites in 34 states this spring and summer.

Each player receives an HSPD Student Planner, complete with weekly and monthly calendars, NCAA initial eligibility requirements, SAT information, and time management instruction. On-field components of the HSPD program include fundamental skill development by position, reviews, and individual competitions. As part of on-field training, players focus on both an offensive and a defensive position, and eventually apply their newly-learned fundamentals to live drills. Participants have access to innovative teaching and drills developed by leading NCAA and NFL coaches.

Please visit www.nflyouthpd.com for the most up-to-date information on HSPD sites.

BUFFALO BILLS 2010 ONLINE MEDIA GUIDE

2010 STAFF

Ralph Wilson, Jr. is respected league-wide as an owner who is as passionate about his beloved Buffalo Bills as he is the National Football League. Publically, he is known as "the conscience of the NFL" due to his unwavering commitment to speak his mind with the best interests of both at heart.

He is the only original American Football League owner who has kept his team in its originating city and his impact on Western New York is obvious. Since starting the Bills franchise in 1959, he has been a fixture in the Buffalo sports scene, leading The Buffalo News to name him the "Top Sports Figure" of the region in the past millennium.

Ralph Wilson's professional football career came full circle in 2009 as his team, along with the American Football League, celebrated its 50th Anniversary while the charismatic leader of the Bills was bestowed the highest honor in the NFL with his induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Nationally, the role he played in the AFL-NFL merger, his presence on nearly every NFL committee, and, more recently, his opposition to the league's 2006 collective bargaining agreement, show a man who is passionate about the game and one who cares deeply about the long term success of the entire League.

During his tenure as owner, the Bills won two AFL Championships, in 1964 and 1965, and were the only AFL team to make the postseason in four consecutive years (1963-66). In later years (1990-93), the Bills became the only team ever to win four consecutive AFC championships.

Mr. Wilson has been honored with numerous awards, such as the Pete Rozelle Award from the Touchdown Club in New Orleans, the NFL Alumni's "Order of the Leather Helmet" and the "Timmie" Award from the Touchdown Club of Washington D.C. In 2008, he received the Francis J. (Reds) Bagnell Award for Contributions to the Game of Football, presented by the Maxwell Football Club. Mr. Wilson was just the fourth NFL owner to receive the award. He also received the inaugural Lamar Hunt Award for Professional Football at the 101 Awards in Kansas City in 2008. The award honors visionary leadership in professional football. In June 2010, Mr. Wilson will be honored as a member of the inaugural class of the Phi Delta Theta Sports Hall of Fame.

Ralph Wilson's presence in the community transcends the game of football sports franchise. The Bills are known throughout the league as pioneers in the area of youth football development and were the first to establish a youth football stadium which actively hosts games for youth football leagues across the state. In addition, he has played an active role in obtaining matching grants from the NFL's Grassroots program for Buffalo area athletic fields totaling over $400,000 in recent years.

Mr. Wilson's philanthropic arm reaches various parts of the country with emphasis on the Western New York region. He has long been recognized for his diverse charitable endeavors that include such benefactors as the food banks of Buffalo and Rochester, the United Way of Buffalo and Erie County, Shea's Performing Arts Center, the Cancer Wellness Center and the Hospice Foundation of WNY, where, in 2002, a wing of its main building was named the "Mary and Ralph Wilson, Jr. Hospice Inpatient Unit." More recently, the Wilson's served the Hospice Foundation as honorary chairpersons for its "Center's Planning Committee" to help build a new $1.5 million Children's Services Center on the Hospice campus in Cheektowaga. Their lead gift served as the cornerstone for the new building which houses the Life Transition Center, the largest grief counseling agency in WNY.

For his tremendous charitable efforts in the Buffalo area over the years, Mr. Wilson was named the Seymour Knox III Humanitarian Award winner in the spring of 2003 and in 2007 he was named the Outstanding Philanthropist of the Year by the WNY Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals. Also in 2007, he and his wife, Mary, were named the Philanthropists of the Year by the United Way of Buffalo and Erie County.

In 1999, Mr. Wilson established the Ralph Wilson Medical Research Foundation which has contributed over $11,000,000 to support medical research. Through the Ralph Wilson Medical Research Foundation and the Ralph C. Wilson Foundation, he has contributed to Buffalo's Roswell Park Cancer Institute, the Cleveland Clinic, where Mr. Wilson was inducted into The Medallion Society of the Cleveland Clinic Heart Center in 2005, The Mayo Clinic, The Miami Project to Cure Paralysis, Wayne State University, the Alzheimer's Association- Greater Michigan Chapter, the Boys & Girls Club of Southeastern Michigan and a number of other worthy local initiatives.

In 2006, the spirit of Super Bowl XL took over Mr. Wilson's hometown of Detroit. He wanted to support the effort and contributed the funds to build the "Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. Athletic Field" as part of the NFL's Youth Education Town legacy gift that was built in the city and is managed by the Boys and Girls Club of Southeastern Michigan.

Mr. Wilson is also a strong supporter of education and has established scholarship programs at various colleges including "The Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. Scholarship" at Canisius College in downtown Buffalo. In addition, as an alumnus of the University of Virginia, he endowed the University's Jefferson Scholars Foundation with an ongoing fund that annually provides candidates from the Buffalo area with the ability to apply for the Foundation's four-year, full-ride scholarship program. At St. John Fisher College in Pittsford, NY, where the Bills host Training Camp, the Bills President has endowed an annual scholarship and is responsible for a building on campus that houses the College of Education.

Ralph Wilson maintains permanent residence in Grosse Pointe Shores, MI with his wife, Mary. An avid tennis fan and player for many years, Mr. Wilson and his partner, Bob Sherman, were the 85 and over age division runner-up champions in both the European Doubles and Austrian Doubles Championship tournaments in the summer of 2005.

The Bills entered a new era on January 19th of this year when Chan Gailey was named the 15th Head Coach in franchise history. Now in his 16th season in the NFL coaching ranks, Gailey is recognized league-wide for his successful offenses, though he has coached all three phases of the game during his vast coaching career.

Gailey has over three decades of coaching experience, including head coaching experience in college, World League and the NFL. Gailey served as head coach of the Dallas Cowboys from 1998-99, leading the Cowboys to playoff berths in each season and compiling an 18-14 regular season record. Gailey also has four stints as offensive coordinator in the NFL with Denver (1989-90), Pittsburgh (1996-97), Miami (2000-01) and Kansas City (2008).

With the Cowboys in 1998, Gailey became the first coach in NFC Eastern Division history to lead his team to a perfect 8-0 record in division play and a 10-6 overall record. Also in 1998, his Dallas squad ranked in the NFL's top 10 in total offense (eighth – 340.6 ypg), rushing (eighth – 125.9 ypg), scoring (ninth– 23.8 ppg) and passing (ninth – 214.8 ypg). He followed that with an 8-8 campaign in 1999 and his second consecutive playoff appearance.

In his two seasons as the Cowboys head coach, Dallas scored 37 rushing touchdowns, the fourth-highest total in the NFL over the two year timeframe.

Gailey's resume speaks for itself. He has spent nine of his previous 15 NFL seasons as either a head coach or offensive coordinator. During those nine seasons, his teams have made the playoffs seven times and boasted a 1,000-yard rusher on seven different occasions. In total, he has made playoff appearances in 11 of his 15 seasons in NFL coaching. His resume also boasts four Super Bowl berths, including one with Pittsburgh (XXX) and three with Denver (XXI, XXII and XXIV).

Gailey served as the head coach at Georgia Tech from 2002-07, becoming the first coach in school history to lead the Yellow Jackets to bowl appearances in his first six seasons. He compiled a 44-33 overall record and his squad averaged 199.3 rushing ypg, which led the Atlantic Coast

Conference in 2007 and finished third in the conference in total offense with 384.9 ypg that season.

In 2006, the Yellow Jackets featured the 2006 Biletnikoff Award winner and number two overall draft pick in the 2007 NFL Draft in WR Calvin Johnson (Detroit). The ACC Player of the Year caught 78 passes for a single-season record 1,202 yards with 15 touchdown receptions, tying for second-most in the country.

A total of 46 Yellow Jackets coached by Gailey in his six seasons at Georgia Tech were either selected in the NFL's annual Draft Selection or were signed to a free-agent contract with an NFL team.

In 2008, Gailey returned to the NFL as the offensive coordinator with the Kansas City Chiefs. The Chiefs had a duo of 1,000-yard receivers - TE Tony Gonzalez and WR Dwayne Bowe - marking the third time in team history.

His coaching experience is so wide-ranging that it includes stints coaching defense and special teams, in addition to his success on the offensive side of the ball. In fact, he owns the distinction of serving as both a head coach and defensive coordinator on the collegiate level, as well as stints as a head coach and offensive coordinator in the NFL ranks.

Gailey began his NFL career as an assistant with the Denver Broncos from 1985-90 under head coach Dan Reeves. He served as offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach (1989-90), quarterbacks/wide receivers coach (1988), tight ends/special teams coach (1986-87) and defensive assistant/special teams coach (1985). During his six years in Denver, the Broncos developed into one of the league's most potent passing attacks centering around Hall of Fame signal-caller John Elway. With Gailey as the team's offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach in 1989, the Broncos advanced to Super Bowl XXIV.

After a one-year stint as the head coach at Samford University, Gailey returned to the NFL as NFL as wide receivers coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1994-95, before being promoted to offensive coordinator (1996-97). During that four-year run alongside head coach Bill Cowher, the Steelers won four straight AFC Central crowns, appeared in three AFC Championship Games and earned a berth in Super Bowl XXX following the 1995 campaign.

During his tenure in Pittsburgh, he was credited with implementing the "Slash" offense that featured the skills of multi-talented QB Kordell Stewart. In 1996, Gailey's first season as offensive coordinator, Pittsburgh ranked second in the NFL in rushing, averaging 143.7 ypg. The following season the Steelers led the league in rushing with 154.9 ypg on the ground. During the 1997 season, Pittsburgh ranked sixth in the NFL in total offense (346.4 ypg) and was seventh in scoring (23.3 ppg). RB Jerome Bettis enjoyed the two most productive seasons of his career with Gailey as his offensive coordinator. Bettis tallied 1,431 rushing yards in 1996 and followed that up with a career-high 1,665 rushing yards in 1997.

The Americus, Georgia native served as offensive coordinator in Miami under head coach Dave Wannstedt from 2000-2001, when the Dolphins posted back-to-back 11-5 records and earned playoff berths each season. The Dolphins averaged 118.4 rushing ypg in 2000, the team's best output since 1984.

In total, Gailey has 13 years of head coaching experience, nine seasons in college, two seasons in the World League and two seasons in the NFL. His overall regular season record as a head coach is 98-65-1.

Prior to joining the NFL ranks, he served as the head coach at Troy State for two seasons (1983-84), where he led the Trojans to the NCAA Division II National Championship in 1984.

WHAT THEY'VE SAID ABOUT COACH GAILEY...

"I think we all have beliefs in systems, but I think the ability to adapt to what you have and to find a way to get the players to believe in that is what separates you in the coaching world. And I think Chan's resume and what he's done proves that this guy can adapt to situations as well as anybody in the league."

"I think the one thing you'll see is he's very passionate. He's an unbelievable competitor. Chan's a guy that will leave no stone unturned. He will not accept mediocrity. And I think that's the thing, being around him, I always thought I was a competitive guy, but he may be more competitive than I am. And I'll tell you, he's a very driven coach, and like I said, very thorough. I just think he's a great fit for the organization."

-- Bill Cowher, Former Pittsburgh Steelers Head Coach

"I just think he has a great grasp of the game and people that play for him love him, they respect him. I just think he's just a really bright coach and a great character. The type of person you'd love to have leading your organization."

"He's coached all different kinds of quarterbacks, but I think he takes the skills that those players have and gives them an opportunity to be the best that they can. I think he's very flexible which you have to be because the game is constantly changing. I just think he does a great job. His knowledge of the game is second to none."

-- Dan Reeves, Former Broncos Head Coach

"I've known Chan Gailey for a very long time and he ranks among the finest people and professionals I've ever worked with. He is a first-class individual who knows how to achieve success at the highest levels. Chan's intelligence, experience and exceptional knowledge of the game will be major assets for the Buffalo Bills."

Russ Brandon was promoted to Chief Executive Officer in late January of this year with the responsibility of overseeing all operations within the Bills organization. His leadership, direction and passion for the sport and region have put the Bills on a course for success heading into the next decade.

In directing the Bills day-to-day operations as the Chief Operating Officer in 2008-09, with the addition of "General Manager" to his title in the latter year, Brandon's reach extended from working on the Draft and Free Agency to spearheading an effort to improve the team game day experience for all fans. During the two-year span, Brandon led the organization to its only back-to-back years of 55,000 +season ticket sales while recording the second highest total in team history in 2008 and the third highest figure in 2009, both contributing greatly to the viability of the franchise.

The 2008 NFL Draft was the first with Brandon at the helm, though he was a part of the Bills draft/free agent formula for a number of years with his involvement in the football operations process that included spearheading the selection and signing of free agents in the post-draft hours. In that Draft the Bills selected Rookie-of-the-Year candidate CB Leodis McKelvin, CB Reggie Corner, OT Demetrius Bell and WR Steve Johnson.

The Bills' 2009 Draft was labeled highly successful by most draft experts and included second-round selection DB Jarius Byrd, the runner-up in the AP Rookie-of-the-Year voting, whose phenomenal rookie season was highlighted with his selection to the Pro Bowl and numerous all-rookie teams. The Bills also cemented the interior of their offensive line by selecting first-round guard Eric Wood and then taking guard Andy Levitre with their 2nd second-round pick. Starting tight end Shawn Nelson was added in the fourth round.

Brandon and the Bills were also active in free agency during this time period. In 2008 LB Kawika Mitchell, fresh off his Super Bowl victory with the Giants, and DL Spencer Johnson were added to the roster. To further strengthen the defense, Brandon was instrumental in acquiring all-pro DT Marcus Stroud in a pivotal trade with Jacksonville.

The Bills made the biggest headlines in 2009 while restoring fan excitement with the signing of free agent WR Terrell Owens, who led all Bills receivers in receptions and receiving yards while climbing into second place on the NFL's all-time receptions list with 1,006. Under Brandon's watchful eye, the team made the key acquisition of C Geoff Hangartner and signed QB Ryan Fitzpatrick, while free agent CB Drayton Florence was added to bolster the Bills secondary.

Brandon served as the team's Executive Vice President of Business Operations in 2007-2008, overseeing the team's vision and execution of all business-related endeavors. He developed a strong base of strategic business and community partners as well as programs that have helped the team connect with its fans and partners. Also during that time, he and his staff established the Bills Toronto Series, a program that is an additional anchor in regionalizing the franchise.

From January of 1999 through January 2006, Brandon served as the team's Vice President of Business Development and Marketing. He and his staff have been credited with the development of the team as a regional franchise and forming strategic alliances with key business partners.

In 1999, Brandon and his staff finalized the foundation of the regionalization plan by relocating Buffalo Bills Training Camp to St. John Fisher College in Pittsford, New York. HOME FIELD HISTORY

- When the Buffalo Bills began play in 1960, their home venue was War Memorial Stadium. Built in 1936, the “Rockpile” was a 36,500-seat facility located in Buffalo at Jefferson and Best streets. In 1965, the open air, natural grass facility was expanded by adding an upper deck to increase capacity to 46,206.
- Years of extreme weather and the popularity of the Bills led to the creation of a larger facility. A 113-acre tract of land approximately 30 minutes from downtown Buffalo was selected and groundbreaking ceremonies were conducted in Orchard Park on April 4, 1972 for the new football complex. To form the lower level of the stadium, more than 370,000 feet of shale were removed – putting the field 50 feet below ground level. Construction was completed in slightly over 14 months and on August 17, 1973, the stadium was officially opened as the Bills played host to the Washington Redskins.
- Since the stadium’s original construction, the facility has seen many changes. In 1984, the stadium’s capacity was increased to 80,290 with the addition of 16 executive suites on the top floor of the administration building. Eight years later, 24 more suites were constructed in the west end zone and shared restrooms were added to the original suites. The Red Zone and Goal Line indoor clubs were added in 1994, offering fans a comfortable atmosphere as each of the two blocks of 500 seats are enclosed in glass. Also in 1994, 14 new suites were added, bringing the grand total to 88 luxury boxes. The 1994 expansion project also brought the team the largest JumboTron in the United States. This mammoth videoboard measured 31.5 feet high by 41.5 feet wide. Some of the capabilities of the videoboard include full-color instant replays, live action shots, crowd shots, out-of-town highlights, animations and various in-stadium shots from cameras exclusive to videoboard usage. In addition, a black and white Daktronics Scoreboard matrix system designed to complement the Sony JumboTron was installed.
- In 1999 crews completed a seven-month stadium overhaul that included constructing 76 brand-new dugout suites and two new enclosed club sections each containing 500 seats. Fans in the dugout suites watch the action just 40 rows from the field. In addition, the Bills replaced 6,800 seats in the sideline club sections with revolutionary contoured heated seats, the first of their kind in North America. Renovations also included four new restroom towers, upgraded stadium lighting and a state-of-the-art sound system.
- In 2007, the Bills introduced a new Mitsubishi high definition LED video display scoreboard measuring 33.5 feet by 82.8 feet. The accompanied new HD Digital Screen Controller will allow for simultaneous display of up to three multiple images (or one full screen image). This installation was only the second true high definition display in the NFL, largely as a result of the integral HD Processor used to produce the necessary lines of resolution (1080), to accurately depict an HD image. In addition, the Bills installed over 1,000 feet of Mitsubishi Diamond Vision LED Ribbon Boards on the fascia of the bowl seating areas. The traditional scoring system is encompassed within this state-of-the-art display along with dynamic sponsor ads, player/team statistics and fan prompts.

As SPORTSMANSHIP COMMUNITY was featured in the "Play 60" PSA, appears on the cover of all of the "Play 60" Materials sent to the Buffalo Public Schools and additional schools throughout Western New York. Lee annually attends the Play 60 Fieldhouse Party where he talks with the students about the importance of staying active and living a healthy lifestyle. The program is done in partnership with the American Heart Association and BlueCross BlueShield of WNY and stresses the importance for children to get active for at least 60 minutes of every day and strive to be physically fit. Lee is also very involved in a spin off program of the Play 60 Challenge called "Fuel Up to Play 60" which targets an older age group of students.

Evans proactively asked to get involved in the "Team Up 4 MS" program. He was featured in a public service announcement to increase awareness of MS in our region and encourage fans to donate to the "Team Up 4 MS" program. Evans annually attends the MS Dinner of Champions and encourages all in attendance to continue to support the cause. This is especially important in WNY because there is a statistically high rate of multiple sclerosis. Evans has also invited guests from the MS Society to sit in his personal suite at Buffalo Bills home games.

In addition to his work with the Play 60 Challenge and the "Team Up 4 MS" program, Lee has volunteered at a number of different community events and programs including the Buffalo Bills and American Red Cross Blood Drive at Ralph Wilson Stadium, The Believe - Breast Cancer Awareness Campaign, the local Make-A-Wish Foundation and the NFL Grassroots Grant announcement at Riverside Park in Buffalo.

COMMUNITY

Brian Moorman is one of the most admired and respected players in the NFL for his dedication to the community. He makes himself available to support the many organizations and agencies involved with the team but on his own he goes above and beyond to help children – especially children facing cancer. In 2003, he established the Brian Moorman PUNT Foundation to support pediatric cancer research, treatment and social programs. A majority of his work is affiliated with Roswell Park Cancer Institute and Carly's Club, the hospital's family-centered support group for its patients. Throughout each year, the PUNT Foundation hosts many events to raise awareness to their cause. In 2009, PUNT hosted its annual Black Tie Gala, a Pottery Painting event and in 2010 hosted the first annual Sprint Triathlon in Buffalo.

Brian participated in the 2009 Community Ticket Donation Program by donating 20 season tickets to Carly's Club. Over 200 people were part of Moorman's Miracles and attended Buffalo Bills home games where they were also treated to food and beverage coupons compliments of Brian.

In addition, Brian was also a part of the Extreme Makeover: Home Edition move in day when the show took over Buffalo's West Side in November. Brian and his fellow teammates carried in couches, mattresses, tables and chairs to make the family feel at home again. Once the move was complete, Brian hung around on the construction site to sign autographs and pose for pictures with the other volunteers and ABC's crew!

Also, in 2009, Brian was selected to be a part of All-Fundamentals Team which is a 26-man roster that honors the NFL's most fundamentally-sound players who commit themselves to service their communities.
